

Call For Art: Community Supported Art (CSA) 2018 Summer Crop

Extended Deadline: April 15th

Eligibility: Residents of Kentucky who have not previously participated in the LAL CSA program. Open to all media and experience levels.

The Lexington Art League (LAL) is accepting applications from Kentucky artists for the 2018 Summer CSA Community Supported Art. Eight new artists will be selected to participate.

What is CSA?

Over the last 20 years, Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) has become a popular way for consumers to buy seasonal food directly from local farms. With the same buy-local spirit in mind, Community Supported Art is a similar endeavor to support local art, artists, and collectors.

The Lexington Art League local project is modeled on the Community Supported Art Program in Minnesota, created by mnaartists.org and Springboard for the Arts.

Since the beginning of the Lexington Art League CSA in 2013, LAL has commissioned the creation of new artwork by over 70 artists. LAL plans to continue CSA by offering a “fresh crop” by eight artists each year.

Why CSA?

For artists, CSA benefits include: supporting the creation of new work, connecting artists with local collectors and patrons, and engaging them in the launch of an exciting new model of art support and distribution.

For shareholders, CSA benefits include: works from local, emerging, and mid-career artists at a fantastic value, relationships with local artists and arts community, discovery of new artists, exploration of a variety of disciplines, and the opportunity to support local artist’s careers and a vibrant community.

How CSA works

We select eight new Kentucky artists to create new and unique, limited editions of 20 handmade works of art specifically for CSA for the launch party on June 22, 2018.

LAL pays selected artists a total of $400 for the completion of a special series of 20 individual artworks.

A full share is comprised of 8 total pieces of art, one from each participating artist. There will be a total of 20 shares available. A full share (8 pieces total) costs patrons $300.
